SHIPPING NEWS.

ROUGH WEATHER REPORTED FROM SEA-HARBOR NOTES AND VICINITY.

The barkentine Louisa Adelaide, Captain Anderson, arrived here yesterday loaded with ice, after a fourteen-day passage from Booth Bay, and noted protest of a yawl-boat lost and extremely heavy westerly gales which drove him far to sea.

The fishing schooner Emily P. Wright, Captain Latham, arrived from sea yesterday and will go on Taylor &amp; Phillips' railway for repairs and will then rejoin. Captain Latham reports very heavy weather.

The tug Sallie will be ready for business in a few days, her boiler and fittings being practically new.

The barge Washington has finished discharging fertilizer at Nansemond and will now come to Norfolk to load lumber for Baltimore.

The tug Alert broke her crank-pin and propeller Tuesday. It is suspected that she struck a sunken log. The damage will amount to between $700 and $800. She will repair here.

The tug Virginia was towed into the harbor Tuesday in a disabled condition. Minor damage to engines.

The tug A. B. Covington was labelled for about $700 yesterday on an old debt, contracted before she came under her present management. Hudson &amp; Bro. It is understood, will take no action to save her, and she will be ordered sold for debt; to-day, the sale to take place from Toms Creek Coal Company's wharf next Monday or Tuesday.

The schooner Three Friends is reported wrecked on North river bar in North Carolina. The wreck is total. The schooner has been stripped.

Captain M. Dempsey, of P. Dempsey, Son &amp; Co., of Philadelphia, is in Norfolk looking out for his firm's interest in the suit of Harry Carlisle's heirs vs. the tug Isabella Dempsey. Carlisle was captain of a barge and was struck by a flying rope end across the stomach, from which he died.
